In the name Of Meg Macnay, who shaped the winding sheet Of her first husband and her second s shirt At once from the same web, what hastes us now? (Sings.) O! Mary, at thy window be, This is the wish d, the trysted hour. (Exit.) Mary D. A strange bold courage buoys my spirit up: Yestreen I dream d my father s spirit stood One foot on Solway, and one foot on shore; And still kept waving seaward. I ll not stay And yield my fame up with a shriek, like dames Who dread to soil their slippers. May Morison enters singing. Yestreen, when to the trembling string The dance gaed through the lighted ha, To thee my fancy took its wing:...
